

NATIONAL INSTITUTE OF EPIDEMIOLOGY

About National Institute of Epidemiology

- Established on July 2, 1999 by merger of Central Jalsa Institute of Leprosy Field Unit, Avadi with Institute for Research in Medical Statistics, Chennai.

- Expertise in the areas of :
  - Biostatistics
  - Epidemiology
  - Controlled Clinical trials
  - Health Surveys

- Research Activities
  - Interventional studies
  - Disease Modeling
  - Health Systems Research
  - Evaluation of health schemes
  - Issues of statistical methodology
  - Epidemiological Investigation
  - Clinical trials in traditional medicines

- Training Programmes
  - Master of Applied Epidemiology
  - Basic epidemiology for Medical doctors, PG students and paramedical workers
  - Biostatistics
  - Controlled Clinical trials
  - WHO-SEARO regional workshop on Surveillance, Epidemic preparedness and Response

NATIONAL INSTITUTE OF EPIDEMIOLOGY

- Facilities

- Clinical laboratory
- Good library with internets
- Well equipped computing facility
- Field practice area covering 5 lakh population

A five-floor complex with canteen, hostel and guesthouses in progress

- Recognised by

- Sree Chitra Tirunal Institute for Medical Sciences and Technology, Thiruvananthapuram for MAE and Ph.D. degrees.
- University of Madras for research leading to Ph. D. degree in areas of Biostatistics and Epidemiology; Ph.D. in Social Work for teaching candidates.
- WHO collaborating Centre for Epidemiology of Leprosy
- Identified as Technical Resource Group for Epidemiology of HIV by NACO